

You're Invited...

MEGA-WAREHOUSE SEMINAR

Frontline Leadership Lessons Learned from a Mega-Warehouse Fire in Indiana

Thursday, Nov. 20, 2025

8:00 am–3:00 pm (EST)

Devens Common Center

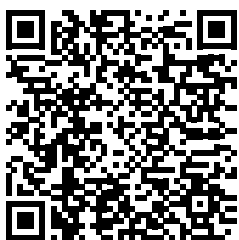

31 Andrews Pkwy., Devens, MA 01434

A major fire occurred in a 1.2 million square foot Walmart Distribution Center on March 15, 2022, in Indiana. This seminar will highlight key findings from this incident, as documented in National Fallen Firefighters Foundation's report, "Incident Analysis, Mega-Warehouse Fire, March 15, 2022."

Today's fire service faces growing challenges when responding to fires in massive warehouse facilities—some now exceeding 4 million square feet. Participants will hear firsthand lessons learned from the chief officers who responded to this complex mayday incident.

You must register (using QR code or URL below) to attend.

There is no charge for this event, and lunch will be provided

Fire is fast.
Fire sprinklers are faster.

Scene from the March 15, 2022 fire at the 1.2-million square-foot Walmart Distribution Warehouse in Plainfield, Indiana

The seminar will benefit fire service personnel, building owners, code officials, insurers, and safety professionals.

Instructors:

Ron Ritchey, NFSA

Jeff Dixon, Deputy Chief, Plainfield (IN)
Fire Department

Matt King, Lieutenant, Plainfield (IN)
Fire Department

Any questions, please contact
Ron Ritchey, ritchey@nfsa.org or
Molly Hugo, mhugo@nfsa.org or
Paul Zbikowski, zbikowski@nfsa.org

